

Annville Church of the Brethren CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Statement regarding abuse:

God embraces children with love, placing their nurture and care in our hand. We believe that children should be safe from all form of abuse and neglect. We, the church, will be advocates for children and establish clearly defined safeguards, policies and procedures for their protection.

We recognize the seriousness and sinfulness of physical, sexual and emotional abuse. This type of mistreatment violates the very image of God. It causes serious damage to the soul, body and spirit of the one abused. It also causes harm to the soul and spirit of the abuser. If abuse does occur, we will seek and support healing measures for all in need.

Our mission is to provide an environment for our children which is safe from all forms of abuse. To be both effective and successful in these efforts, the entire congregation must understand and embrace the policies which will lead to this goal.

What constitutes child abuse?

There are three kinds of child abuse: physical, sexual and emotional. Physical abuse is inflicting bodily injury on a child. Sexual abuse is using a child under 18 years of age in or exposing a child to sexual activities (including a child who is developmentally unable to give consent), with or without his/her consent. Emotional abuse is demanding that the child do more than he/she is able to do, severely criticizing or humiliating him/her for not living up to a demand, or placing upon him/her such unclear requirements that the child cannot understand what he/she is supposed to do. (From "A Cry for Help") This policy deals specifically with the congregation's response to physical and sexual abuse.

Policy Administration:

The Child Protection Policy applies to all activities in which children/youth participate. Such activities may include, but are not limited to, Sunday School, Kidz Klub, Jr. and Sr. High Youth Groups, Children's Choir, and Vacation Bible School. The Child Protection Policy at the Annville Church of the Brethren will be administered by the Child Protection Task Force (consisting of the Christian Education Team Leader, Child Protection Coordinator and Pastor) and shall be applied to any person who is hired, appointed, or who volunteers to work with children/youth.

All persons who work with children/youth will ...

1. Receive orientation regarding our congregation's "Child Protection Policy" and sign and return the "Child Protection Covenant." Orientation to include the following:
  - a) facts of child abuse
  - b) rationale for the emphasis on protecting children/youth from abuse in the church
  - c) identify policies and procedures for protection
2. Sign and return the "Child Protection Covenant" each year. Signed covenants will be filed in a secure location in the church office.
3. Any prospective employee is required to complete the "Service Application."

4. Regularly attend the church for a continuous six (6) months prior to working unsupervised with children and youth.
5. Begin ministry only after approval from the Child Protection Task Force. Approval for those who will accompany children or youth overnight is contingent upon interview process, Criminal Records Check and Child Abuse Clearance Form documentation (or equivalent documents from another state).

No person who has been convicted of any form of child abuse will be permitted to work with children or youth in any church-sponsored activity.

Guidelines for ministry with children/youth:

Two-Adult Rule: At least two approved adults should be present during any church-sponsored program, event, or ministry involving children/youth. If it is not possible for two adults to be present in the same room, an adult “roamer” may monitor activity in the rooms and bathrooms. Youth may serve as the “second adult” after having completed the orientation and having signed a “Child Protection Covenant.” A youth worker is defined as someone who is in grades 7-12 and regularly attends Anville Church of the Brethren. A “second adult” could also be a college student who has attended less than six months, but has completed the orientation and signed a “Child Protection Covenant.”

Open Door Policy: When there is no window in the classroom door, the door should be left open so that persons passing by can observe.

Parental Permission: Parents should be well informed of all information regarding the events in which their children/youth will be participating. In a situation where an adult has a legitimate reason to be alone with a child or a youth, parental consent should be obtained. Written parental consent should be obtained on a per event basis for all off-site church-sponsored group activities. Consent should include permission to provide medical treatment for all events involving physical risk.

Overnight Rule: All adult chaperones (supervisors, sponsors, parents, and helpers) must be approved by the Child Protection Task Force before they can accompany children/youth on an overnight activity. Parental permission will be obtained for all overnight activities. Both male and female adult chaperones must be present at all times for overnight events if children/youth from both genders are participating.

Non-Sponsored Activities: Overnight activities for children or youth are sometimes held in conjunction with other organizations, in which case, the Anville CoB does not have the authority to approve all adults. In this case, the Anville CoB does not guarantee that the sponsoring organization has adopted a Child Protection Policy.

Transportation: Anyone transporting children/youth must be 18 years of age or older, hold a valid senior driver’s license, present current insurance of car being used and obey all traffic laws, including use of seat belts.

Physical Discipline: No physical discipline shall be administered at any time. However, physical intervention to protect a child/youth from harming self or others does not constitute physical discipline and may be necessary.

Exceptions: If a situation arises during which any of these policy guidelines cannot be reasonably met due to unavoidable circumstances, the adults involved should accommodate the policy as far as they are able, act in accordance with the spirit of the policy and report the situation to the Child Protection Coordinator. However, it is the intent of this policy that such exceptions are rare.

Guidelines for Reporting Suspected Abuse:

We believe that all workers in children/youth ministry have a personal responsibility and moral obligation to report any suspected abuse to any member of the Child Protection Task Force (the Christian Education Team Leader, Child Protection Coordinator, or Pastor) and cooperate in any subsequent investigation.

Report suspected incidents of physical or sexual abuse as follows:

1. Intervene immediately if an incident is in progress. The safety of the victim must be the church's primary concern.
2. Get another adult to come and be a second witness and to assist with the situation.
3. Notify the parents or guardian of the victim, unless the parent or guardian is the alleged abuser. Take any necessary steps to assure the child's safety until the parents arrive.
4. The volunteer or paid staff making observation or receiving disclosure of suspected abuse shall contact a member of the Child Protection Task Force to report the observation or disclosure immediately and to assist in completing the "Report of Suspected Incident of Child Abuse" form.
5. All efforts should be made to maintain confidentiality throughout the process. Do not talk with other witnesses about what happened so that your memory is not altered by what they say they saw.

Appropriate investigation and action will be taken according to established guidelines.

(Reference: CoB Annual Conference Statement on "Congregational Ethics and Ethics in Ministry Relations" – 1996).

Appointment of the Child Protection Coordinator

The Ministries Coordinating Team shall assume responsibility for appointing a Child Protection Coordinator. This person will work together with the Christian Education Team Leader and the Pastor to form the Child Protection Task Force to administer the Child Protection Policy. The Child Protection Coordinator will be appointed to a three-year term with a limit of two consecutive terms of service. The Child Protection Coordinator shall maintain all signed covenants, clearance forms, and records of staff applications and references in a confidential manner in a secure location with access controlled by the Child Protection Task Force.

Periodic Policy Review

The Ministries Coordinating Team shall assume responsibility for reviewing this policy periodically. The Child Protection Coordinator will initiate a review of this policy with the Ministries Coordinating Team at least every three years.

IV. DEFINING CHILD ABUSE

To create a safe, Christian, nurturing environment for children, we need to know the symptoms or signs of child abuse, whether it be physical, sexual, or emotional. In this way, we can be instrumental in preventing further abuse. Also, knowing what signs to report in a suspected abuse case is a safeguard against being sued for neglecting or ignoring or not reporting possible abuse situations. One or two symptoms are not a reason for major concern. Multiple symptoms are a better indicator of possible abuse.

1. PHYSICAL ABUSE

Physical signs of physical abuse might include:

- Bruises and welts
- Lacerations and abrasions
- Abdominal injuries, evidenced by constant vomiting, localized tenderness and/or swollen abdomen
- Burns, especially patterned and dry burns
- Frequent and/or unexplained fractures and skeletal injuries

Behavioral signs of physical abuse might include:

- Talking about abuse
- Expressing explicit or implicit fear of adults
- Displaying behavior extremes such as aggressiveness or withdrawal
- Avoiding physical contact with others
- Wearing unseasonable clothing to hide injuries

2. SEXUAL ABUSE

The precise legal definition of child sexual abuse or molestation varies from state to state, but in general, includes any form of sexual contact or exploitation in which a minor is being used for the sexual stimulation of the perpetrator. In a more common sense, child sexual abuse is:

“Any sexual activity with a child – whether in the home by a caretaker, in a day care situation, a foster/residential setting, or in any other setting, including on the street by a person unknown to the child. The abuser may be an adult, an adolescent or another child, provided the child is four year older than the victim.”

Child sexual abuse may be violent or non-violent. All child sexual abuse is an exploitation of a child’s vulnerability and powerlessness in which the abuser is fully responsible for the actions.

Child sexual abuse is criminal behavior that involves children in sexual behavior for which they are not personally, socially, and developmentally ready. Child sexual abuse includes behaviors that involve touching and non-touching aspects.

Types of abuse that involve touching include:

- Fondling
- Oral, genital, and anal penetration
- Intercourse
- Forcible rape

Types of sexual abuse that do not involve touching includes:

- Verbal comments
- Pornographic videos
- Obscene phone calls
- Exhibitionism
- Allowing children to witness sexual activity

Physical signs of sexual abuse may include:

- Lacerations and bruises
- Nightmares
- Irritation, pain, or injury to the genital area
- Difficulty with urination
- Discomfort when sitting
- Torn or bloody underclothing
- Venereal disease

Behavioral signs of sexual abuse may include:

- Anxiety when approaching church or nursery area
- Nervous or hostile behavior toward adults
- Sexual self-consciousness
- “Acting out” of sexual behavior
- Withdrawal from church activities and friends

Verbal signs may include the following statements:

- I don’t like (a particular adult).
- (A particular adult) does things to me when we’re alone
- I don’t like to be alone with (a particular adult).
- (A particular adult) fooled around with me.

3. EMOTIONAL ABUSE

Physical signs of emotional abuse are less apparent or obvious than in instances of physical or sexual abuse. Physical signs of emotional abuse may include:

- Speech disorders
- Lags in physical development
- Failure to thrive: listlessness, unresponsiveness

Behavioral signs of emotional abuse may include:

- Unpleasant behaviors: hard to get along with, demanding, destructive, cruel, causes trouble, won’t let others alone
- Avoids others, is unusually shy, anxious to please, is too submissive
- Shows low self-esteem: accepts unpleasant treatment from others without protest
- Either inappropriately adult – takes charge of other children; or inappropriately infantile – sucks thumb, rocks constantly

4. NEGLECT

Physical signs of neglect may be evident when the child:

- Appears tired, listless, almost always dirty for days at a time
- Goes to school without breakfast, often without lunch or lunch money
- Wears dirty or inappropriate clothes
- Seems often to be alone for long periods of time
- Obviously needs glasses, dental care or other medical attention

Behavioral signs of neglect may be evident when the child:

- Is frequently absent from or late to school
- Begs or steals food
- Causes trouble in school by often not doing homework, using alcohol or drugs, engaging in vandalism or sexual misconduct

V. EDUCATING THE CONGREGATION

Our mission is to provide an environment for our children which is safe from all forms of abuse and neglect. To be both effective and successful in these efforts, the entire congregation must understand and embrace the policies that will lead to our goals. Therefore, it is essential to have a program to educate the congregation of the concerns and needs in this area.

A program to educate the congregation, led by the Child Protection Task Force, should include the following:

1. Share the facts (by means of the Parish Happenings). Child abuse is on the rise in this country and it is of epidemic proportions. It has touched every segment of our society including the church family.
2. Identifying the symptoms and signs of child abuse. Most of us would say it is a problem “out there.” We don’t want to think or talk about it and therefore most of us really don’t know much about abuse and neglect.
3. Identifying the potential impact of an allegation of abuse on our church. How would an allegation of abuse in our church impact the child; the child’s family; church membership; the integrity of the church leaders; the larger community of which we are a part; and the legal liabilities?
4. Communication of the need for a program to prevent child abuse can be shared and interpreted in many settings and must be reinforced through several education opportunities. These may include, among others, the following:
  - a. Have a series of elective Sunday School classes for adults on the topic of child abuse and the need for a program to protect the children.
  - b. Hold a special meeting for the entire congregation to focus on a child abuse prevention program.
  - c. Hold a special meeting for parents dealing with issues of child abuse including recognition of signs of abuse; a healthy way of alerting children to certain dangers; and in general raising the awareness of the parents. This could include an educational session with the children using age-appropriate materials.
  - d. Hold meetings for current church workers to educate them in the area of child abuse and raise their level of awareness (see section VII. Training Church Workers).

Always be aware of other creative opportunities to reinforce the concerns in this area.

VI. TRAINING CHURCH WORKERS

Annville Church of the Brethren Christian Education Team

An important element of success in the child abuse program is to train all church workers serving in the infant, children and youth ministries, including the workers currently serving. This training should be resourced by workers who have had experience in this area, such as a counselor, social worker or a representative from a child abuse/child protection agency or law enforcement agency.

The training should include a defining of abuse, the prevalence of abuse in the area, the causes and effects of abuse, and a focus on abusers, including the general characteristics and traits of abusers. An explanation of the child protection laws of the state should be given, along with the requirements which the law would place in the church. Also, a detailed explanation of the child abuse prevention program should be shared, along with an outline of the procedures under which the program will be implemented.

VIII. RESPONSE PLAN TO SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE

Any suspected child abuse should immediately be reported to a member of the Child Protection Task Force (the Christian Education Team Leader, Child Protection Coordinator, or Pastor), and the person reporting the suspected abuse should cooperate in any subsequent investigation. An incident report shall be created using the approved "Report Form" (section VIII of this manual), which documents the incident and any subsequent conversation or contact as it takes place.

1. The Child Protection Task Force member shall follow-up on the report in the following ways:
  - a. Speak with the child/youth/vulnerable adult who is alleged to have been abused. In some cases a child may be more at ease if the person who reported the incident is part of this conversation. Staff should not question for details or ask leading questions.
  - b. Determine the next steps. The Child Protection Task Force may review its specific plan for follow-up in any particular situation with legal counsel at any time in the process.
  - c. Report disclosure, per result of consultation, to Child Protective Services, law enforcement agencies, and other appropriate agencies. Although ordained clergy are not legally mandated to report confidential communication, we encourage reporting as a necessary part of moving toward wholeness for all involved.
  - d. Notify parent/guardians of the alleged abuse, contingent upon advice from Child Protective Services or law enforcement agencies when the alleged abuser is a parent or guardian.
2. If the alleged abuser is a volunteer or paid staff of the Annville Church of the Brethren, the Child Protection Coordinator will investigate and arbitrate the situation. If a conflict of interest exists between the perpetrator and the Child Protection Coordinator, the Child Protection Task Force will assign an alternate person(s) to review that particular situation.
3. The Child Protection Task Force will contact the alleged offender to:
  - a. Present him/her with a formal complaint informing him/her of the time and nature of alleged abuse
  - b. Outline the procedure that will be followed
  - c. Hear the alleged offender's response (verbal or written).
4. The Child Protection Task Force will also:
  - a. Consult an attorney regarding compliance with state reporting laws and cooperation with the investigation
  - b. Make available a summary response to the complainant
  - c. Notify the church's liability insurance company
  - d. Remove the alleged offender temporarily from his/her position(s) while a confidential investigation is being conducted.

If allegations are unsubstantiated:

1. Investigations will cease.
2. Every effort will be made to exonerate, reconcile, and restore the person who had been accused.
3. A public statement by the Child Protection Task Force will be made if the person who had been accused so chooses.
4. The Child Protection Task Force will respond with love, care and concern to the complainant(s), to the congregation, and to the person who was accused and his/her family.

If the allegations/investigations demonstrate poor judgment or unwise behavior but not abuse:

1. The Child Protection Task Force will hold the offender responsible and accountable for the behavior. Grace and mercy will be extended in the context of repentance, accountability, and justice.
2. Education and/or counseling will be required to correct behavior patterns.
3. Persons will be removed from susceptible church ministry settings for a period of six months.
4. Actions taken will be communicated to the complainant(s) and to the congregation as necessary.

If allegations/investigations substantiate child abuse:*1. Ministry to the Victim:

- a. Ministry will be done with sensitivity and care.
- b. Pastoral care and spiritual support will be provided.
- c. One person will be named and offered to the victim(s) to serve as an advocate, supporter, and interpreter of the process.
- d. A list of qualified counselors/therapists will be provided.
- e. In the case of multiple victims, opportunity will be made for these persons to meet together for mutual support and prayer.

2. Ministry to the Offender:

- a. Specialized counseling will be required.
- b. The individual will be permanently removed from susceptible positions in the church's ministry.
- c. Pastoral care and spiritual support will continue for the offender and his/her family during rehabilitation.
- d. The Child Protection Task Force will monitor rehabilitation. At the conclusion of rehabilitation there will be full reinstatement into church life with help to use spiritual gifts in non-susceptible ministries.

3. Ministry to the Congregation:

- a. The Child Protection Task Force will report to the Church Moderator any confirmed abuse and follow-up, including disciplinary action taken.
- b. Trained professionals will be made available to assist the congregation in addressing concerns to bring healing.
- c. The Moderator will have the authority to notify the Ministries Coordinating Team as deemed necessary.

4. Ministry to the Accused Offender's Family:

- a. Ministry will be done with sensitivity and care, providing support and prayer.
- b. One person will be named and offered to the family to serve as an advocate, supporter, and interpreter of the process.
- c. A list of qualified counselors/therapists will be provided.

Obligation to report cases of child abuse:

23 PA C.S.A. ~6301 ET. Seq. Sets for the Child Protective Service Act. In that act ~6311 requires a "person who, in the course of their employment, occupation or practice of their profession, come into contact with children, shall report or cause a report to be made in accordance with ~6313, (which states that an oral report must be made immediately to the courts, protective service, etc. and then a written report must follow within 48 hours), when they have "reasonable cause to suspect, on the basis of their medical, professional or other training and experience, that a child coming before them in their profession or official capacity is an abused child."
